RAILROAD CONNECTION TO CEMENT PLANT

A large crew of men employed by the Southern Pacific Company is at present at work building a railroad from the new cement plant to the main line of the Southern Pacific This track will take the place of that on deep water road, but is of very much heavier rails, being built of the standard railroad rails, capable of carrying the heaviest trains. At present the work on the new track has been completed as far as the Redwood City water works, and the remainder of the work will be finished within a week or two.

Work is still being rushed on the cement plant, and an army of men are kept continuously busy in its construction. According to word received this week the plant will be completed this fall, at which time it is said there will be a huge barbeque, and a grand opening. This will give the residents of Redwood City and this vicinity an opportunity to see the magnitude of the plant which has sprung up amongst them, a magnitude at present only relized by those who are intimately connected with the work.

Auto Association to Furnish Road Service

First in the west to provide motordom with a mechanical first aid and towing service. This is the accomplishment the California State Automobile Association achieved last Tuesday morning, April 1, when a fleet of huge yellow tow cars and first aid motorcycles, manned by expert mechanics and "trouble shooters" began operation in San Francisco, Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda.

On April 15, members of the Automobile Club residing or traveling in the vicinity of Fresno, Stockton, San Jose, Sacramento and Modesto will be provided a similar service furnished in these cities through leading garages and repair shops under contract with the Automobile Association. Then as rapidly as is consistent with efficiency the service will be extended to cover all of Northern and Central California.

Day or night, every day in the year, the Automobile Club's emergency road service will be available without charge to its members. A motorist is stalled on the road, his car develops ignition or starter trouble, the gasoline or oil supply is exhausted, the battery is run down, the gas line is clogged, or a woman motorist unaccompanied by an escort has a punctured tire, a telephone call to the Automobile Club's headquarters or to its nearest mechanical first aid service station will bring a first aid motorcycle quickly to the scene of the trouble. If the car cannot be started, or if it is wrecked, a tow car will be dispatched to bring it to a garage.

This service will be furnished free to members, with a strict enforcement of a "no tipping" rule. The service is provided to members whose cars are stalled on a public street or highway, not in a private or public garage.

For the time being, the service in San Francisco and the East Bay Cities will be confined to the city limits. In Fresno, Stockton, Sacramento, Modesto and San Jose, mechanical first aid stations will answer calls within a radius of ten miles of their respective locations. The service will be extended as rapidly as possible to other important centers until, eventually it will be available at all points in this section of California.

In the event of trouble on the road in the Bay Cities, the member will call the automobile Club's San Francisco or Oakland office, as the case may be, giving his name, membership card number, make of car, location and other data to a dispatcher who will be on duty at all hours. The dispatcher will order a mechanic and equipment to leave immediately from the mechanical first aid station nearest the stalled car to render first aid or towing, as the situation may require.

Sufficient equipment will be maintained so that calls may be answered at all hours every day with the greatest possible dispatch. In the vicinity of the interior cities, the motorist will call the mechanical first aid station in the zone in which he has trouble.

Two services are provided, mechanical first aid, and towing. The Automobile Association is the first automobile club in the west to inaugurate this combined service, it was announced this week. Similar services, automobilci club executives said, have been a great boon to the motoring public in Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland and St. Louis, eliminating some of the most troublesome phases of motoring for women as well as men drivers.

School Day Plan For County Kids

A general get-together day for all the children of the public schools of the county from the kindergartens to the junior colleges is being planned for San Mateo county. At a meeting of all the teachers of the county held this week at Burlingame, plans were outlined and chairmen of the various committees were appointed. The date fixed for the event is May 2.

The object of the affair is to enable the children from all parts of the county to meet each other and get acquainted. County Superintendent of Schools, Roy W. Cloud, who originated the idea, believes that such a get-together meeting occasionally, will not only give the children of the public schools a good time, but will benefit them in future years by forming friendships and acquaintences in all parts of the county in which they live.

At the meeting at Burlingame, John F. Mason, supervisor of rural instruction, was chosen as chairman of the whole affair; Thornton Hopler of San Mateo, as chairman of the committee to plan for the boys' events and Miss Bertha Bradley of the Sequoia Union High School, as chairman of the committee which will have charge of the girls' events. W. L. Glasscock was chosen chairman of concessions and grounds, and H. E. H. Ruggels of Burlingame will be in charge of the morning parade. The program committee is in charge of Geo. W. Hall of San Mateo, and Pansy M. Abbott also of San Mateo is chairman of the committee on publicity.

No definite plans have as yet been outlined for the day. The committees are now at work, however, and announcements will be made later concerning the program for the events and other arrangements.

Football Field Sold for $42,888.41

The football field at the corner of Broadway and the Highway was sold last Monday to J. B. Perry, local coal and feed merchant for the sum of $42,888.41 by the board of trustees of the Sequoia Union High School. Bids were called for some weeks ago and were opened by the trustees on Monday.

Upon reading the bids it was found that Perry was the highest bidder, his bid being $32,000. The property was then thrown open to open bidding, when according to law, any one might raise the highest bid 5 per cent. Lambert & Walter raised Perry's bid, and were in turn raised by the University Realty Company of Palo Alto. Perry again raised his bid, and was again raised by Lambert & Walter, and then raised that firm again, and secured the property, as none would go any higher.

The ball field was purchased by the high school in 1914, and since that time has been used as an athletic field, and has been the scene of a number of Chataquas, carnivals, etc. Until the purchase of the new high school property, it was the only field upon which the high school baseball and football teams played in Redwood City. The property has been twice offered to the people of Redwood City for a playground for the children, and as a community center, but the proposition was turned down both times.

Following his purchase of the property, Perry announced that he intends to erect a number of business buildings upon the property in the near future. The buildings to be erected will be of first-class construction and will be a credit to the cit, Perry said. As the property is located at the main entrance to the town, the fact that it will be made the location of up-to-date buildings, will be welcomed by the citizens of Redwood City, as it had been feared that some unsightly structure might be erected there when the property was sold.

SURPRISING FACTS SHOWN IN BUILDING PERMIT REPORT

That building permits, representing a total building cost of $158,685 were issued in Redwood City last month, was shown by the report of the building inspector of Redwood City filed with the board of trustees this week. This amount represents a gain of 420 per cent over the permits issued during the same time last year, and a gain of more than 60 per cent over the amount of permits issued during February of this year. The building permits issued during 1923 amounted to $1,196,086, at that time a high mark for building. If the present rate of building continues, however, the total for 1924 will be far over four million.

CONTRACTS LET FOR TWO LARGE HOUSES

Contracts were filed in the office of the county recorder this week for the erection of two large houses in Redwood City. One is on the property of Charles Lightner on the corner of Duane and Hopkins street, and calls for the erection of a $9,950 frame house of elaborate proportions. The other contract is between Wm. Dusel, postmaster of Redwood City and Uhlenberg and Groom, local contractors, for the erection on the corner of Warwick street and Arlington avenue of a residence to cost $12,441. Numerous small contracts have also been let during the week for residences throughtout the city. This spring bids fair to see a building program that will change the appearance of the town more than a number of years in the past.

HOUSE DAMAGED BY FIRE, SAVED BY FIRE DEPARTMENT

A call for the fire department late yesterday morning took the engine to Stambaugh and Spruce streets where it was found that a fire which had evidently started from a defective flue, had gained considerable headway in the roof of the house occupied by Will Stott.

The department immediately cut through the roof and succeeded in getting the flames under control with a minimum amount of damage No one was home at the time, and when Mrs. Stott arrived a few minutes after the alarm had been sent in, the fire was already extinguished.

SLIGHT EARTHQUAKE SHOCK EXPERIENCED ON THURSDAY

A slight tremor shook this section about 4 o'clock last Thursday afternoon, but so far as can be ascertained no damage, whatever, was done. Both Plaintiff and Defendant Ask New Trial

Louis Bosse who was last week given a decision in a suit which he had brought against Rudolph Spreckles, Miss Claudine Spreckles, his minor daughter and Miss Helen Marye, also a minor, has filed a petition in the local court for a new trial against the two latter defendants. Bosse sued the three defendants for $15.00 for injuries which he claimed to have received when struck by Spreckles' car, driven by Miss Marye and in which Claudine Spreckles was riding. The petition for a new trial states that the trial is asked to fix the responsibility for the accident.

The day after Bosse had petitioned for a new trial, Rudolph Spreckles, one of the defendants also appeared in the office of the county clerk and requested a new trial. In the petition which Spreckles filed he charges irregularities in the proceedure of the court and claims that new evidence has been discovered since the trial. JACKRABBITS KILLED SPOILS BELMONT COURSING

A shipment of jackrabbits kept by the Belmont Coursing Club to be torn to pieces by the dogs of the club escaped the fate of the ancient Christian marters of the Roman arena, and died a more humane, if less glorious death. The rabbits were shipped from Madera county, where the foot and mouth disease is prevalent, and their destruction was ordered by Chief Heckey of the State Horticultural Commission. The rabbits were turned over to Sherift McGovern, and by him were killed. The rabbits thus were saved from being eaten alive by the dogs after having been run till too exhausted to go further, but the members of the peninsula's society were deprived of the pleasurable sight.

Many Seek to Be in Atherton

According to word received this week, an effort has been started to annex a portion of the unincorporated land adjacent to the incorporated town of Atherton to the town. A number of the property owners of land in the unincorporated district are said to have decided to request that their property be annexed to the town of Atherton. While no definite announcement has as yet been made, it is understood that the property consists of some of the finest homes on the peninsula, practically all of the wealthy residents of the section surrounding Atherton are said to be behind the move for enlarging the incorporated district. The mavement is said to have begun last Monday and will probably come up before the board of supervisors in the near future.

NEWS OF WOODSIDE

Fire again exacted its toll from Woodside when on Monday night the house of Charles McIntosh went up in flames. The origin of the fire is undetermined as the family was in the city and all electric wires were disconnected. The blaze broke out at about eleven o'clock at night and before help could arrive the house was doomed. Everything in the house was lost including a fine collection of Oriental rugs and a valuable collection of old French china dating back to the days of Marie Antoinette. Mr. McIntosh has not yet decided whether he will rebuild.

Miss Mary Evelyn Morse, who was injured in a fall two weeks ago, passed away on Monday afternoon. Her death was not the direct result of the injury, but was due to pneumonia contracted as the result of the shock and exposure. Her loss will be distinctly felt in Woodside.

The many friends of Fred Mighall have been bombarding him with congratulations over his success in the late school election. On Saturday evening about sixty of the fathers and mothers of Woodside together with their children gathered at his house to express their appreciation of his past services to the school and their satisfaction that for another term he was to help determine the policies of the school.

It is not unusual for city people to buy a home in Woodside, but it is not often that Woodside people buy a place in the city. That has occured however, in the case of Stanley Harris, who has just purchased the Charles Stetson Wheeler home on Washington street in San Francisco.

Peter Koehorst went to the hospital on Thursday to undergo an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. Shannon and Miss Foley of the Portola school brought their school to Woodside on Thursday for a base-ball game with the local lads. The home team won with a score of 25 to 15, but considering the small student body at Portola and their limited facilities for practise, their team made a very creditable showing. Mrs. Shannon is to be congratulated upon the team spirit she has infused into her pupils.

Mrs. A. H. Audiffred has bidden a large number of her friends to gather at her home on Tuesday next for an afternoon around the Mth Jongg tables.

The regular classes were discontinued at noon, and during the afternoon the boys, arrayed in old clothes proceeded to get to work around the new buildings of the school and to clean up the grounds. The boys worked in groups of twenty ,each group under the direction of a captain appointed by the principal, Mr. Argo.

The girls devoted their energy to making curtains and other useful work for the interior of the buildings. As a result the gruonds appear considerably better today than they did on Thursday. "Campus Day" will likely become an annual affair at Sequoia.

TRAFFIC OFFICERS RESUME PATROL OF COUNTY ROADS

The roads of San Mateo county are once more being patroled by a squad of efficient traffic officers after having been for months without any police protection outside of the incorporated towns. The traffic officers of San Mateo county started back to work last Tuesday, April 1st, under an arrangement whereby they are to be paid by the state from the auto registration fund, which would oherwise be turned over to the county..

The officers were attired in bright new uniforms and formed a fine sight with shining brass buttons and large revolvers worn on the outside of their coats. Under the regulations of the state motor motor vehicle department, the officers must wear their gun on the outside in plain view and where it is eiasly assessable. They are warned never to pull a gun until they need it and are then told to use it.

K. OF C. ANNUAL COMMUNION AT SAN MATEO

BROADWAY BLOCK MAY BE SOLD FOR GOOD PRICE

Reports were current yesterday the Germania block on Broadway was taken under a limited option by a local party. While no definite statements would be made by the party concerned, it is understood that the price asked for the property, which is one of the largest holdings on the street, was $500 per front foot.

The value of business property has steadily advanced within the last few years, as shown by the good price brought by the old foot ball field, which was sold this week for $42,888, and was bounght ten years ago for f18,000. N owhere in the state will values increase more rapidly within the next few years, than here, if indications can be believed.

The Germania hall is one of the oldest buildings now standing on Broadway. It was built by Richard Kuck for the Turn Verine society, which in the early days of Redwood City was one of the important organizations here. For many years it was the property of the late Martin Kuck, from whom it passed to the present owners, his daughters, at his death.

For many years the old hall was the chief meeting place of the town, and was the scene of all the dances in Redwood City until a few years ago. At one time a part of the building was used as a warehouse and boats used to load and unload at a wharf on the premises.

Sequoia Girls Will Hold Baking Contest

A cake baking contest by the girls of the Sequoia Union High School will take place next Thursday at the domestic science department of the high school. This contest will be under the immediate direction of Miss Mildred Proctor, domestic science instructor of the high school, and will be under the auspices of the Gas Appliance Dealers Association. The contest will be in connection with Gas Appliance Week, a week of advertising being conducted by the manufacturers and dealers in gas appliances.

There will be two cake making contests, one for the best cake made according to a certain recipe, which all the girls will use; the other for the best cake made according to each girl's favorite receipe. Prizes will be given to the winner of each contest. The prizes will be of a useful nature, and will probably be something for the kitchen. The prizes will be on display within a few days in one of the stores of the town or at the office of the P. G. & E. Co.

The cakes made during the contest will then be given to families who will appreciate cakes. It is thought that a truck will be loaded with the cakes and that they will be distributed around the Five Point district.

Other features of the Gas Appliance week are the reduced prices at which gas ranges are being offered by dealers in gas appliances in Redwood City. A glance in this week's advertisements will show where bargains can be found in the most up-to-date ranges and stoves.

GET THEM YOUNG

This is "Child Welfare Week" and while the general trend of thought has been the body of the child, we would have the parent think of another phase of the matter. See that the child hears about the children of other lands and then perhaps the peace among nations that we should like to see may really come to pass; for

"In hearts too young for enmity,
There lies the way to make men free.
When children's friendships are worldwide,
New ages will be glorified.
Let child love child, and strife will cease.
Disarm the hearts, for that is Peace."

THE FIGHTING PADRE

Big hearted, broad minded Father Joseph McQuaide, the fighting parson of the First California Volunteers, was gathered to his fathers and answered, "here" to taps this week. He went in the full glory of a strong manhood, and was ready when the call came.

Father McQuaide was a big man who was prepared to serve his country when ever the call came. He served his God and his church at all times, so it was just to be expected that he would respond whenever the call to arms came.

I remember seeing Father McQuaide the day the California boys came back from the Phillipines. He was glad to get home and his hearty greeting to every boy in the outfit was good to hear. It didn't make any difference to him what church they belonged to. They were all his boys and he was there when they needed spiritual advise or a cure for the blues of homesickness.

As an older man Father McQuaide went to France during the World war and he was universally beloved by every man of the regiment. He learned their needs and while he constantly pointed the way to the higher things of life, he dispensed the humor and good cheer of his happy spirit in the places where it was sorely needed. He was a faithful member of his church but in the service of his country, creed meant nothing and he served the protestant and the jew just as willingly as he did the members of his own faith.

Now he has come to the end of his earthly fight. With his body covered by the flag he loved and his hands holding the crucifix, the emblem of his faith, he went out into the larger life. He will not be seen again in his daily walks and acts, but his spirit will linger long among those who knew him and loved him for what he was and what he did.

THE FATHER'S RESPONSIBILITY

A business man of San Francisco last week addressed a Redwood City audience on the subject of "Education." He gave a wonderfully fine talk and demonstrated the needs of an educated citizenry. His main idea, however, was that the average father delegates entirely too much of his responsibility as a parent. We believe the gentleman is right. The general run of fathers do not know anything about what their boys are doing. They turn the whole thing over to mother and never give any thought to affairs unless something goes wrong.

Somehow a kind providence, aided and abetted by a good sensible mother, keeps the lad straight, but its our bet that there would be fewer boys up for juvenile offenses if there were a larger number of fathers who thought more about their boys and less about their business. We know that the business might suffer but a good son is worth infinitely more than any good business that ever existed.

It isn't necessary though to neglect the work in order to keep in with son. All he wants is a little attention, a bit of guidance and an appreciation of the things he is trying to put over.

It's all right for mother to give good advice but she never was a boy, so what does she know about the boy problem. We wish more fathers could have heard the gentleman talk; it might have helped some of them. We also hope that those who were present may profit by the remarks.

THE SALE OF THE BASEBALL GROUNDS

The trustees of the Sequoia Union High School District sold the old baseball grounds Monday to a local business man for approximately $43,000. The trustees purchased the property ten years ago for $18,000 and as the school has had the free use of the place for ten years it was a mighty good bargain.

The increase in value shows that Redwood City property is a mighty good thing to have and we believe that the purchaser will make good money on his investment. The city could have secured this choice piece of land last month for $25,000 had the people seen fit to accept the school trustee's offer. The electors, however, decisively turned down the matter.

We believe that the purchaser will put the property on the market and that it will soon be the site of some fine business houses. Unless we are way off in our guess this will help to move the business center of Redwood City to a position near the Highway.

With the postoffice permanently located near the S. P. station and with most of the new homes in town erected west of the Highway, it is natural to suppose that business will follow the population.

We think that the business men of the downtown section would have been wise had they fostered the playground proposition, as it would have kept the old ball grounds from becoming private business property and the business section would have been kept in its present location.

FORMER SEQUOIANS PLAN SCHOOL VISIT

A visit to the new high school building for the purpose of inspecting that newly completed structure is being arranged by the Sequoia Alumni Association for the evening of April 21. At this time the entire building will be thrown open to all former students of the school, a group of teachers will explain the many points of interest in the new building.

The new high school is one of the best and most modern educational institutions on the coast. Speaking recently before an audience in the Congregational church here, Jerome Schaffer, noted impersonator and traveler said, "I have been traveling around the United States for five years in an automobile and have seen a lot of high schools in that time. But in all my travels I have never seen a finer school, in a finer school location or with finer equipment, and I have never seen a place with so ifne a climate as Redwood City."

All former students of the institution should take pride in their school and become acquainted with its many advantages. The "Alumni Night" will afford an excellent opportunity for any who desire to inspect the new buildings.

Advantages of Gas as a Fuel

When heat is derived from a coal or wood fire all that is really burning is the gas that comes from the coal or wood. By building a fire the hard fuel is simply changed into gas that will burn—and ashes that won't burn. The gas that is piped to the house is fuel that has had the ashes and dirt taken out of it. The fuel delivered through the gas pipe is the only part of the coal that burns. That is why gas is so marvelously efficient.

Gas is a remarkable fuel—ideal. It is clean, free from work and bother, dependable, always ready, efficient. It performs the maximum duty at the minimum cost and it performs it quickly. Efficiency and economy, with gas, go hand in hand.

Applied to the modern gas range it works miracles. It is instantly delivered in as small or in as large quantity as is desired. It is always available. By the use of a cleverly designed pilot light merely the pressing of a button lights the stove. By the adjustment of a regulator, even temperature can be brought to any desired degree and can be kept there for so long a time as is desired. When a kettle has been brought to a boil it can be placed on a burner which will keep it at exactly the boiling point—no more, no less. All temperatures between intense heat and moderate heat can be obtained easily and can be maintained readily.

The housewife understands the convenience of such behavior and realizes, from annoying past experiences with old-style coal burning ranges and old-style gas stoves, the comforting sense of certainty of result in cooking where definite temperatures can be obtained and steadily maintained. A "slow fire" with a coal-burning or wood-burning range is almost an impossibility. A hot fire can easily be created but an even temperature cannot be maintained. Replenishing the fire box means temporary reduction of the temperature. After replenishment the temperature often becomes excessive. Many a culinary delight is ruined by uneven temperature.

"STARS ON EARTH"

By Boy C. Rush,
With Apologies to E. H. Rush

I searched for days to buy a car.
I wanted the best to be had.
At last I found it, a pretty Star.
She's some gas buggy, "by gad."

We started out for town today.
The kids, the missus and I.
We sure were feelin' proud and gay
As I shifted the critter in high.

I spurred the gas, she bit the dust.
She sailed along like the breeze.
She seemed to have the flying lust,
And she never coughed or wheezed.

Ere long I heard the missus shout,
"Newt, for my sake, hold her down
The wind's nearly blown the children out,
And we're ten miles past our town.

As I stopped my wife cried loudly,
"This ain't no regular car."
Then I stuck my chest out proudly
And says, "You bet it ain't, it's it's a Star."

Cleaning Without Odor by the
F. Thomas Process

Our many years of experience has taught us that it is impossible to do perfect cleaning with cheap, inferior methods. That is why we found it necessary to invest nearly $500,000 in the equipment of a plant and the establishment of an expert organization to do the quality of work demanded by our customers.

With the "F. Thomas Process" we not only remove every particle of dust but we return your garments without that usual disagreeable smell of gasoline. Every drop of gasoline we use in cleaning is redistilled and very highly refined.

Raw gasoline—the kind that you buy for your automobile—is full of heavy oils and unfit for cleaning fabrics. It is little better than ordinary distillate and leaves a sickening "gasoline" smell in your clothes

Local Grocery Has Delacatessen

A delicatessen department carrying a full line of pickles, cheese, cold meats, etc., has been installed by Stafford & Long, local grocers, in their store on Broadway. In connection with this new department they have had a clean, modern kitchen arranged in their store, where all the necessary cooking will be done. C. A. Callaghan, formerly in charge of the delicatessen department of Levy Bros. in San Mateo, has charge of the new department and personally superintends all the operations in preparing the tasty morsels which he has for sale.

A special advantage to housewives which the new delicatessen will offer, is the cooking of food to order. Ladies who find that their kitchens are too small, or that they have not time to prepare a large dinner, for their friends, may leave the order with Mr. Callaghan, and the dinner will be delivered to their house ready cooked.

In conection with the new department, Stafford & Long are placing on the market their own brand of honey, S & L Brand honey, which they will pack in their own kitchen, and the purity of which is guaranteed by them.

CONGRESSMAN FREE BROADCASTS SPEECH

Congressman A. M. Free, of this district, broadcasted a speech on the Japanese situation in California over the large government radio station at Fort Bragg, Nort Carolina, on the night of March 15. People of the east have been vitally interested in this problem, and Mr. Free has been called upon to speak so many times on the subject that it was finally arranged for him to broadcast his speech and thus reach millions of people; where, otherwise, he could have only reached a few thousand by appearing before audiences in various sections.

Reports coming into the station show that the speech was heard as far north as Canada, as far south as Cuba, and as far west as Iowa. It was also picked up by some of the vessels in the Atlantic.

Congressman and Mrs. Free, of this district, were among the guests at the White House on March 17th, when Mrs. Coolidge entertained at a musical. The artists of the occasion were Madame Greta Torpadie, soprano, and Mr. Carlos Salzedo, harpist. After the musical the guests repaired to the spacious dining room of the White House, where refreshments were served.

Mrs. Coolidge is proving to be a very delightful hostess, and is loved by all who come in contact with her.

AFTER LENT DANCE PLANNED BY ALUMNI

The alumni of the Sequoia Union High School are planning for a dance to be given immediately following Lent. The dance will be held in the pavillon of the high school on the evening of April 25. Arrangements have been made to have the Nighthawk orchestra, the school orchestra, furnish music for the occasion, and a good time is to be expected. The proceeds of the dance will be devoted to the end of the year banquet, which the association always gives to the graduating class. Admission will be 50 and 25 cents.

The weather doesn't have to be scorching to make ice a real necessity wherever perishable foods are kept. Even at 50°, milk begins to deteriorate and bacteria multiply a thousand fold. Other foods lose much of their nutritive value, even before they actually spoil. It doesn't pay to try to do without ice in Spring. Ice protects your health and pays for itself in the food it saves.

FIRE DISTRICTS TO HOLD ELECTIONS

Both the Menlo Park and the San Carlos Fire Districts will hold an election for commissioners on next Monday, April 7th. In the Menlo Park district only one candidate, A. G. C. Hahn, appears on the ballot, but it is rumored that there will be a write-in campaign, but no one has been announced as yet as a contestant. In San Carlos three commissioners are to be elected and four candidates are aspiring to the position, these are O. D. Fairfield, H. W. Mallory, Frank S. Quinn and George F. Walker.

When a fake stock salesman says you "can't go wrong" on the investment he offers, he means he can't go wrong, if you buy.

Why Gas Fuel?
Because it is always ready when needed.
Just turn a valve for cooking—a faucet for hot water—or press a button for warm air from the furnace and gas fuel is immediately available. Gas is the most flexible fuel, and when used in the proper modern appliances it is the most economical, dependable and safe.
Modern industry has produced gas appliances which make it possible for the present day housewife to conduct her home with but a fraction of the time and labor necessary years ago.
Visit the Gas Equipment Exhibit for Better Homes, which will be held April 7th to 12th. There will be demonstrations at your local dealers of the efficient present day appliances.
